

JOB POSTING (1/20/10)

Be the Volunteer Coordinator for San Diego Democrats!

The San Diego County Democratic Party is hiring a full-time Volunteer Coordinator to keep our headquarters active and our local Democrats engaged as we begin this busy election year.

Duties will include volunteer recruitment, training, and support, as well as data management, phones/reception, planning for special events, and general office administration. This is an ongoing staff position rather than a short-term campaign job.

Applicants should have at least some college education and should demonstrate strong written and verbal communication, excellent organizational skills, proficiency in standard office technology, an ability to handle stress, and a background in motivating and working with people. Political organizing experience is desirable.

Salary will be negotiated based on experience. Please email résumés to Ryan Hurd at ryan@sddemocrats.org.
